Senate Committee Decides Upon Publicity for Deliberation on Tolls Question.

WILL NOT ATTEMPT DELAY

McCumber, Republican, in Extensive Argument, Defends Wilson's Policy.

Washington, April 6.—Publicity for the deliberations on the Panama toll exemption repeal was determined upon today by the Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals, which to-morrow will begin consideration of the controversy in all its aspects.

Senator O'Grady, chairman of the committee, decided upon open sessions, after a conference with his colleagues. Whether hearings are to be held has not been decided, but this will be determined when the House repeals bill and various compromise Senate measures are taken up formally. How long the committee will deliberate on the issue before making a report to the Senate no one would predict to-night, but administration leaders here are known that any effort to prolong the preliminary consideration would be opposed, even to the extreme of moving to discharge the committee from consideration of the subject.

Senator O'Grady, leading Democratic opponent of the repeal, and others who join with him in the fight, will insist, however, that there will be no effort at delay. When the issue reaches the floor of the Senate, various forces at work to complicate the situation make it improbable that a vote can be reached for several weeks.

McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, who steadfastly refused to join the party in support of the Senate at length today, flatly declared that toll exemption for American ships was a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and that it was against the spirit of the Senate when the treaty was ratified. For the Senate to repeal the toll exemption, he said, was to hide behind the American flag while bargaining with a foreign power for the benefit of a coastwise shipping trust.

Senator McCumber's argument was one of the most extensive yet presented in the Senate on either side of the controversy. He spoke for three and a half hours, without interruption, and at the conclusion of his speech he invited all right thinking men in the Senate to support the treaty. The President has taken, regardless of party or political expediency.

The galleries broke into applause as Senator McCumber sat down, and half a dozen Democratic Senators crossed the chamber to congratulate him.

The Senator said he had no concern with the President's position, but that the question at issue was the honor of the nation. He de-

Majority at Least Ten.
Administration Senators to-night seemed to be more confident than ever that the House repeal bill would carry in the Senate unamended, maintaining that several Democrats who had been changed as doubtful possibly would support the President, and that the majority for repeal would be at least ten. Eight or nine Republican Senator Brandegee, of Connecticut, at the conclusion of Senator McCumber's address to-day, introduced a resolution requesting the President, if not incompatible with the public interest, to give the Senate all information, records and correspondence relating to the negotiation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. Senator Brandegee favors the repeal bill.

President Wilson told visitors to-day he considered that editorial expressions in the press and correspondence from disinterested observers all over the country revealed support of the administration's stand for repeal of the Panama toll exemption. The President said he did not expect the question to be a campaign issue, and expressed confidence for an administration victory in the Senate.

Action on Representative Knowlton's resolution calling on President Wilson and Secretary Bryan for diplomatic correspondence over the Panama toll exemption repeal was delayed indefinitely today in the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Democrats of the committee will consult Secretary Bryan, Mr. Knowlton reintroduced the resolution to omit reference to the President, and broadened it to call for all papers relating to the interpretation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

MANOEUVRES HEARLY AUGUST

General Evans Will Detail Fifteen Regular Army Officers to Assist Virginia Troops.

While no definite date has been set for the manoeuvre campaign in which troops from five States will take part this summer near Washington, Brigadier-General Evans, commander of the Department of the East, United States Army, has notified the Virginia troops, as General Saxe said, that the manoeuvre campaign will be the most convenient period for the militia of this State.

The troops of the Seventh and Eighth Divisions of the militia will take part in the manoeuvre campaign, which will be designated as a camp of instruction and carried out by the department commander, either in person or by representatives, while the regular army officers, the law governing the organized militia provides that in all joint exercises of the army and organized militia, the senior officer of the regular army commands without regard to the rank of the officer of the organized militia participating.

In order that the troops of the organized militia may derive the greatest possible benefit from the manoeuvre campaign, General Evans has announced that, in addition to the officers of the regular troops taking part in the manoeuvre, one regular officer will be attached to each battalion of infantry, battalion or fraction thereof of artillery, and signal troops, with each battery of artillery, and with the sanitary troops at each camp. Officers attached for this duty will, if practicable, be of the same arm of the service as the unit to which they are attached, except in the case of signal troops, to which purpose any properly qualified officer having the necessary technical knowledge will be detailed. Under this arrangement fifteen regular army officers will be assigned to the Virginia troops, ten of which will be attached to the regular troops, and one each to the signal troops and sanitary troops.

Candidates for Mayor and for the City Council in Clay Ward will speak to-night at Home-Clay Club on Spring Street. The mayoralty candidates and candidates for the City Council in Jefferson Ward will address the next Progressive League at Chimborazo School on Thursday night.

The City Democratic Committee will meet on Friday night to prepare details of the primary of April 28.
